ERA IN MOTION

The 1920s, 30s, and 40s were a time of transformation in fashion, design, and cocktails, embracing modernity with confidence. Inspired by Gazette du Bon Ton (1912 to 1925), a French magazine known for its Pochoir illustrations and progressive vision, this menu channels the energy of an era that refused to be dull.

A toast to the best of the age—fashion in its prime, jazz in full swing, a great fair that redefined style, and soirées that lasted till dawn. Our ATLAS Classics remain at the heart of it all, a foundation that sets the standard. Just like Art Deco's bold lines and boundless energy, this menu channels the very best of the age, designed for its time yet forever modern.

After all, living well never goes out of style.

FINISHING TOUCH

With crystal-clear brilliance and flawless lines, these glasses are as stylish as the company you keep.

COCKTAILS FOR THE AGES

From the French 75, first lifted in celebration at the end of World War I, to the venerable Old Fashioned, a symbol of quiet sophistication since the 19th century, and the Gimlet, once a naval staple and now a drink of elegance. Good cocktails, like good design, are rooted in their time but stand beyond it.

ATLAS French 75 15.5%

EN VOGUE

Style is a statement, and the silhouette speaks volumes. Flowing drop-waist gowns shimmer with sequins, embroidery, and feathers, adorned with strands of pearls and glittering headpieces. Tailored tuxedos, double-breasted suits, and sharp pinstripes define the modern gentleman, accessorised with silk pocket squares, polished oxfords, and the confidence of one who knows they belong.

Diamonds, emeralds, and onyx are the stones of the moment, crafted into angular designs that echo the bold lines of modern cities.

The fedora, with its pinched crown and wide brim, remains a staple for the well-heeled, worn at a jaunty angle to exude effortless charm.

shochu, bitter vermouth, fino sherry, jasmine tea aromatic, aged complexity with bright citrus

26

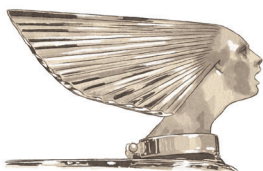

Deco Bloom 9.8%

aperitif wine, moscatel sherry, rosé verjus, rhubarb, cream
lush and airy, with deep, caramelised notes

25

TO THE GREAT FAIR

Paris welcomes the world to the Exposition Internationale des Arts Décoratifs et Industriels Modernes. Along the Seine, grand pavilions rise, drawing crowds eager to experience the future of design. Visitors move through halls filled with sleek furniture, intricate textiles, and shimmering glasswork. They admire automobiles with smooth, modern lines and step into salons where lacquered wood, rich velvet, and gilded details create a world of quiet luxury. This is the exhilarating new movement captivating Paris and beyond!

René Lalique's works embody the essence of life and transformation.

The Streamliner 11.8%

28

IN FULL SWING

One, two, three, four! Ah, this new music! It's the heartbeat of our time, a vibrant fusion of rhythms, improvisation, and soulful melodies. Jazz is more than music; it's a living history. From the intimate clubs of Montmartre to the grand ballrooms of New York, its syncopated beats drive dancers with unrestrained joy. The night is alive with brass and bass, and the music fills every corner of the city.

Velvet stages, flickering lights, and sequined performers—cabaret and theatre come alive with sultry jazz, soulful ballads, and electrifying dance.

Amber Club 16.1%

dark fruit, herbal intrigue, and a spirit-forward backbone

27

THE SPECTACLE

Step beyond the ordinary into a world where time slows, conversation flows, and every sip is part of the spectacle. Like a scene from one of Beaton's legendary gatherings, where wit and wonder reigned, raise a glass to cocktails made for the moment, nights that feel like a dream, and stories that linger long after the last toast.

Ashcombe House 29.6%

rhubarb infused champagne, scotch, cambodian gin, sherry

a nod to a time where grace met mischief - floral, with a luscious warmth
